

Kowloon Junior School

Name of Child: _____

Year of Entry into KJS : _____

Current Class: _____

We are KJS are committed to improving and promoting our educational programmes and the teaching and learning that take place in the school. We try to ensure that communication with parents, students and teachers through both written material and the school website are attractive and interesting. These resources are greatly improved if photographs and samples of student work are shown.

We would very much appreciate your permission for the future possible use of samples, photos etc. should the school select them for publication.

Carefully read the section below, then sign and date the form. It will be retained by the school and kept with your child's school record.
